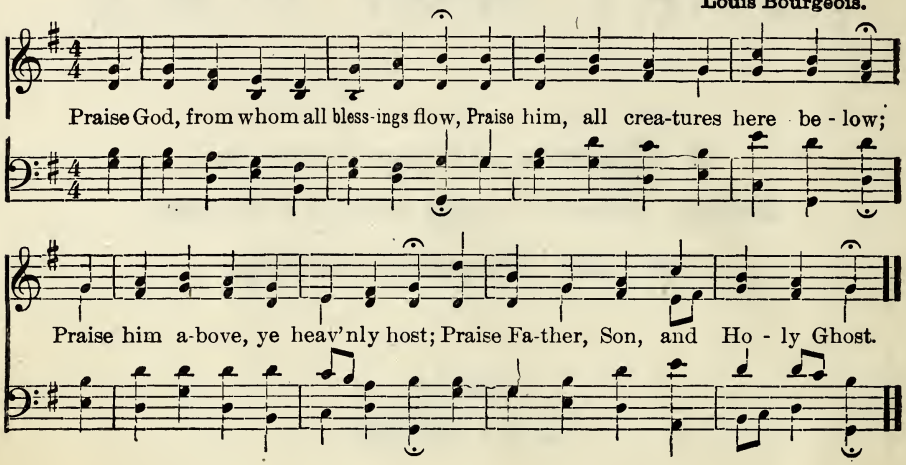
Prefatory Word.

To make a good, efficient song book,—one that is symmetrical and complete, filled with impressive, helpful hymns set to appropriate and pleasing music of as high a standard as our Sunday schools can appreciate and effectively use,—has been the Editor's ambition. Has he succeeded?

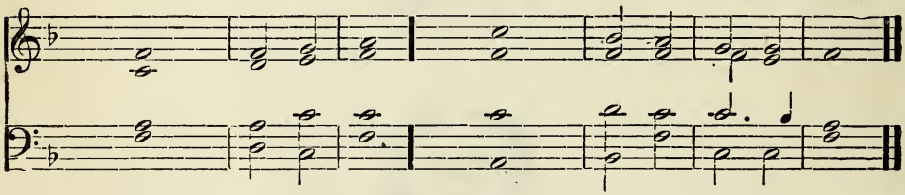
Doxology.

Louis Bourgeois.



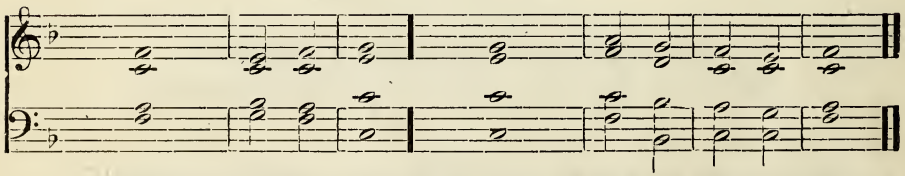
Gloria Patri.

Richard Farrant.



Glory be to the Father, and | to the | Son: ‖ And | to the | Holy | Ghost; ‖
As it was in the beginning, is now, and | ever | shall be, ‖ world | without | end. | A- | men.

The Lord's Prayer.



1 Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed | be thy | name. ‖ Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on | earth, as it | is in | heaven.
2. Give us this day our | daily | bread. ‖ And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive | those that | trespass a- | gainst us.
3. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver | us from | evil: ‖ For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for- | ev-er. | A- | men.

While Chorus is repeated the two girls go to opposite ends of the class ranged in line at the back of the platform. They pass along lighting the tapers held by the children, meeting in center. They lead the march from the platform, children following two and two. They march down the middle aisle of the church to the rear, where the lights are extinguished. If church has two side aisles, divide the line and have the two parts meet in the back of the room. If a more elaborate effect is desired, supply all the children in the school with tapers. As the children come down from the platform let them light the tapers of the leaders or teachers of the classes, who will light those of the rest of the class. If the room can be darkened the effect will be much prettier.

Supt. And thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands.

School. They shall perish, but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment; but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

Supt. Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name.

School. That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth.

Supt. There were great voices in heaven saying,

All. The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign forever and ever.

Prayer.

Solo. No. 25.

253. Giving.

Music. Nos. 102, 104, or 109.

Supt. Moreover, brethren, we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia; How that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their great joy and their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their liberality.

School. For to their power, I bear record, yea, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves.

Supt. Therefore, as ye abound in everything, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also.

School. For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might become rich.

Supt. For if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

School. As it is written, He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack.

Supt. But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.

School. Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver.

Supt. And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:

School. Being enriched in everything to all bountifulness, which causeth through us thanksgiving to God.

Supt. For the administration of this service not only supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God.

All. Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift.

Music. No. 14 or 15.

Supt. The words of the Lord are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

School. Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward.

Supt. All thy commandments are faithful; I esteem all thy precepts concerning all things to be right.

School. Bind them continually upon thine heart, and tie them about thy neck.

Supt. For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater:

School. So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

Supt. Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

School. These are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God: and that believing ye might have life through his name.

Supt. Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.

School. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

Supt. This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein.

School. For then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success.

Prayer.

Music. No. 17.

255. Decision Day.

Music. Nos. 55, 57, 59, or 64.

Supt. Wait on the Lord, and keep his way, and he shall exalt thee to inherit the land.

School. The Lord our God will we serve, and his voice will we obey.

Supt. Let thine eyes look right on, and let thine eyelids look straight before thee. Ponder the path of thy feet, and let all thy ways be established. Turn not to the right hand nor to the left: remove thy foot from evil.

School. Show me thy ways, O Lord; teach me thy paths. Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day.

Supt. They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk and not faint.

School. Make me to go in the path of thy commandments; for therein do I delight. Incline my heart unto thy testimonies, and not to covetousness. Let integrity and uprightness preserve me; for I wait on thee.

Supt. No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one and love the other; or he will hold to the one and despise the other; ye cannot serve God and Mammon.

School. I will keep thy statutes: O forsake me not utterly. I have chosen the way of truth: thy judgments have I laid before me.

Supt. If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

School. Lord, I believe; help thou my unbelief.

Supt. I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

School. Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength and my redeemer.

Supt. Be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

School. O God, my heart is fixed; I w. sing and give praise, even with my glory.

Prayer.

Solo. No. 54.

256. Rally Day.

Music. Nos. 2, 49, 101, 98, 110, 113, or 117.

Supt. I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord.

School. Our feet shall stand within thy gates, O Jerusalem.

Supt. Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee.

School. Peace be within thy walls, and prosperity within thy palaces.

Supt. For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will now say, Peace be within thee.

School. Because of the house of the Lord our God I will seek thy good.

Supt. For Zion's sake I will not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest,

School. Until the righteousness thereof go forth as brightness, and the salvation thereof as a lamp that burneth.

Supt. Then will I teach transgressors thy ways; and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

School. As the Lord liveth, what the Lord saith unto me that will I speak.

Supt. They that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament;

School. And they that turn many to righteousness as the stars forever and ever.

Supt. Be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord,

School. Forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

Supt. Be ready to every good work.

School. Let us not be weary in well doing; for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

Supt. They that sow in tears shall reap in joy.

School. He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

Prayer.

2[illegible] onal Day.

—[illegible]2 or 133.

[illegible] he nation whose God is [illegible] people whom he hath [illegible] for his own inheritance.

School. Remember me, O Lord, with the favor that thou bearest unto thy people: O visit me with thy salvation: That I may see the good of thy chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of thy nation, that I may glory with thine inheritance.

Supt. We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly. Our fathers remembered not the multitude of thy mercies;

School. Nevertheless he regarded their affliction, when he heard their cry: and he remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mercies.

Supt. Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem; praise thy God, O Zion. For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates; he hath blessed thy children within thee.

School. He maketh peace in thy borders, and filleth thee with the finest of the wheat.

Supt. Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people.

School. The Lord will give strength unto his people: the Lord will bless his people with peace.

Supt. And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it.

School. And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

Supt. And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

All. The Lord shall reign forever, even thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise ye the Lord.

Music. No. 134 or 183.

258. Missions.

The Commission—The Promise—The Method—Our Duty.

Music. No. 124 or 125.

Supt. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world.

School. Ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

Supt. As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them.

School. They that were scattered abroad went everywhere preaching the word.

Supt. For the Scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

School. For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

Supt. I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me.

School. For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead.

Teach. And that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.

Supt. Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away: behold, all things are become new.

Teach. Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us. We pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

All. The Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

Prayer.

Music. No. 126 or 127.

259. Thanksgiving Day.

The Command—The Condition—The Promise—The Covenant.

Music. Nos. 2, 3, 7, or 8.

Supt. THE COMMAND. Thou shalt keep the feast of harvest, the first fruits of thy labors, which thou hast sown in the field:

School. And the feast of ingathering, which is in the end of the year, when thou hast gathered in thy labors out of the field.

Supt. THE CONDITION. And it shall come to pass, if ye shall hearken diligently unto my commandments which I command you this day, to love the Lord your God, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul,

School. That I will give you the rain of your land in due season, the first rain and the latter rain, that thou mayest gather in thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil.

Supt. THE PROMISE. While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease.

School. THE RESPONSE. We thy people and sheep of thy pasture will give thee thanks forever: we will show forth thy praise to all generations.

Supt. O give thanks unto the Lord; for he is good: for his mercy endureth forever.

School. Let the redeemed of the Lord say so, whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy; and gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north and from the south.

Supt. Thou crownest the year with thy goodness; and thy paths drop fatness.

School. They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness: and the little hills rejoice on every side.

Supt. The pastures are clothed with flocks; the valleys also are covered over with corn; they shout for joy, they also sing.

School. O give thanks unto the Lord; for he is good: for his mercy endureth forever.

Supt. Let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name.

School. Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

260. Temperance.

Supt. Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth; and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: but know thou, that for all these things God will bring thee into judgment.

School. Therefore remove sorrow from thine heart, and put away evil from thy flesh.

Supt. I said in mine heart, Go to now, I will prove thee with mirth, therefore enjoy pleasure: I sought in mine heart to give myself unto wine.

School. Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labor that I had labored to do: and, behold, all was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun.

Supt. Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.

School. Woe unto him that giveth his neighbor drink, that puttest thy bottle to him, and makest him drunken also.

Supt. They that be drunken are drunken in the night. But let us who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for an helmet, the hope of salvation.

School. What is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

Supt. Take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.

School. Put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

Supt. Every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible.

All. I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air: But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection; lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway.

Prayer.
